

1. Leery (adjective)

Meaning; Cautious, suspicious, wary, hesitant, or nervous

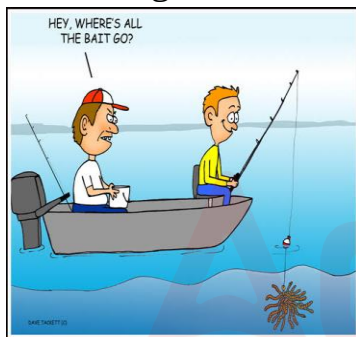

Synonyms: distrustful, suspicious

Antonyms: trustful, secure

2. Bait (noun)

Meaning; Anything which allures; something used to lure or entice someone or something

Synonyms: lure

Antonyms: repulsion

3. Broach (verb)

Meaning; To open, to make an opening into; to pierce.

Synonyms: raise, introduce

Antonyms: reserve, conceal

4. Empyrean (adjective)

Meaning; of the sky or the heavens

Synonyms: Paradise

Antonyms: hell

5. Hinge (noun)

Meaning; A jointed or flexible device that allows the pivoting of a door

Synonyms: rely, depend

Antonyms: free, independent

6. Venture (verb)

Meaning; To undertake a risky or daring journey.

Synonyms: gamble, dare

Antonyms: hide, avoid

7. Concise (adjective)

Meaning; brief, yet including all important information

Short Summary:

Benjamin isn't your normal guy, in fact, he's a guy spit right out of the 40's living in today's era. Oh, and he has music coming from his ears to match any situation. Benjamin must learn to adapt to the big city and the people it has to offer in order to fit in and be accepted for who he is, a man with his own music. Things take a turn for the worst when his best friend and new roommate, Marty, gets kidnapped by Jai and his group of thugs. It's up to Benjamin to sneak in and save his best friend!

The Man Who Music'd is a dramatic comedy!

Synonyms: brief, summary

Antonyms: description, expansion