Finance Ministry Issues ‘Indian Economy – A Review’ Report Instead of Economic Survey

In 2024, India will not have the usual Economic Survey traditionally presented before the Union Budget. Instead, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman will present an interim budget, known as a vote-on-account, on February 1. The reason for not presenting the Economic Survey this year is the election context. 2024 is an election year in India, and presenting the Economic Survey could lead to politicization due to the potential change in government after the elections. This could disrupt the regular Budget process.

However, the Ministry of Finance has released an alternative report titled “Indian Economy – A Review,” prepared by the office of Chief Economic Advisor (CEA) V Anantha Nageswaran. This report does not replace the official Economic Survey but provides valuable insights into the Indian economy’s trajectory and prospects over the past decade and its future outlook. It’s important to note that the official Economic Survey is expected to be presented after the general elections and the formation of the new government. The Review consists of two chapters and takes stock of the state of the Indian economy and its journey in the last 10 years and offers a brief sketch of the outlook for the economy in the coming years.

Key points from “Indian Economy – A Review” include

1. India’s projected growth to a $5 trillion economy in the next 3 years and a potential to reach $7 trillion by 2030.
2. The review focuses on structural reforms undertaken in the past decade and their positive impact.
3. It offers a cautious outlook on future growth and inflation, acknowledging global uncertainties and challenges.
4. India is expected to surpass a GDP growth rate of 7.2% in FY24, outpacing the global economy.
5. For the third consecutive year, the Indian economy is set to achieve a growth rate exceeding 7%.
6. There has been a rise in public sector investment, a robust financial sector, and substantial non-food credit growth over the past decade.
7. India is now the third-largest fintech economy globally, after the USA and the UK.
8. India has become the fourth-largest stock market worldwide, surpassing Hong Kong.
9. The PM Jan Dhan Yojana has significantly increased the percentage of women holding bank accounts.
10. There has been a surge in the female labour force participation rate and initiatives like the Skill India Mission, Start-Up India, and Stand-Up India are contributing to this increase.
11. A significant increase in the Gross Enrolment Ratio (GER) for females in higher education.
12. The report highlights the dynamism in the MSME sector due to government support.
13. The implementation of GST and the integration of domestic markets have improved economic efficiency and lowered logistics costs.

RBI’s Analysis Report on Trend and Progress of Banking in India 2022-23

The annual performance report of the Indian banking sector, compliant with Section 36(2) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, presents a comprehensive analysis of the sector’s achievements and challenges. It encompasses cooperative banks and Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs), providing insights into their contributions to the country’s economic framework.

Stability and Strength of the Banking System

The report highlights the robustness of India’s banking system and NBFCs, underpinned by high capital ratios, improved asset quality, and substantial earnings growth. This solid foundation has enabled credit expansion in double digits, thereby supporting domestic economic activities. However, the report emphasizes the necessity for enhanced governance, risk management, and the creation of additional financial buffers to sustain progress.

Scheduled Commercial Banks (SCBs)

SCBs have experienced significant growth, with their combined balance sheets expanding by 12.2% in the fiscal year 2022-23, marking a nine-year high. This growth is attributed mainly to credit expansion in the retail and services sectors. Additionally, SCBs have strengthened their capital buffers and asset quality, with the Gross Non-Performing Assets (GNPA) ratio reaching a ten-year low of 3.9% by March 2023 and further dropping to 3.2% by September 2023. Remarkably, no bank was under the prompt corrective action (PCA) framework by March 2023, indicating improved health of the banking sector.

Capital Adequacy Ratios

The Capital to Risk (Weighted) Assets Ratio (CRAR) has seen varying trends across different bank types:

- Public Sector Banks (PSBs) reported an increase in CRAR from 14.6% in 2022 to 15.5% in 2023.
- Private Sector Banks (PVBs) experienced a slight decrease in CRAR from 18.8% to 18.6%.
- Foreign Banks (FBs) maintained a stable CRAR at 19.8%.

India's Position at 42 in the Global Intellectual Property Index 2024

The US Chamber of Commerce recently unveiled the 12th edition of its International Intellectual Property (IP) Index, offering a comprehensive evaluation of the IP landscape across the globe. This year's index ranked 55 economies, assessing their IP frameworks' effectiveness in fostering innovation and creative industries. The United States retained its position at the pinnacle, followed closely by the United Kingdom and France, highlighting the critical role of robust IP systems in economic development.

India's Position in the Global Ranking

India secured the 42nd position out of the 55 countries evaluated, with an overall score of 38.64 percent. This placement underscores the ongoing challenges and opportunities for India in strengthening its IP framework to bolster innovation and economic growth. Despite the static position, the inclusion of India in the analysis signifies its importance in the global IP discourse.

Global Leaders in IP Rights

The index identified the top 10 economies with the most effective IP frameworks, led by the United States with a score of 95.48 percent. The United Kingdom and France followed, demonstrating the preeminence of Western economies in the IP domain. This hierarchy of nations reflects the direct correlation between strong IP protections and economic prosperity.

Top 10 Economies for IP Rights

1. United States (95.48%)
2. United Kingdom (94.12%)
3. France (93.12%)
4. Germany (92.46%)
5. Sweden (92.12%)
6. Japan (91.26%)
7. Netherlands (91.24%)
8. Ireland (89.38%)
9. Spain (86.44%)
10. Switzerland (85.98%)

Trends and Observations

The report highlighted several key trends, including the advancement of 20 economies in their overall IP scores. Notably, Saudi Arabia, Brazil, and Nigeria emerged as the top gainers, reflecting their concerted efforts to invest in policy-driven innovation. This improvement among various countries signals a positive trend towards strengthening global IP policies. Conversely, the index also revealed stagnation in 27 economies, including India, where no significant progress was noted. Furthermore, eight countries, such as Ecuador, experienced a decline in their rankings due to inadequate enforcement mechanisms against IP infringements.

Implications for Global IP Policy

The findings from the index suggest a plateau in progress among the top-ranked economies, calling for renewed leadership from the United States and the European Union in IP policy. The report advocates for multilateral organizations to reassert their commitment to global IP standards, cautioning against counterproductive measures like IP waivers that could undermine the IP framework's integrity.
